No Book but the BIBLE

While we often benefit from the insights gleaned from the world of religious books, the Bible itself is the only real standard of religious thought and practice. All else is to be measured by it.

All theological opinions of men, all human traditions passed down to us from our forefathers, and all cultural trends of modern society are irrelevant.

No one is bound by any man-made confession of faith, manual of church order, or book of church discipline. The Bible alone must govern our faith and practice.

Claude

Welcome Visitors! You are our honored guests! Please fill out an attendance card and place in the collection plate.

News & Events

September 3 at 5:00pm Matt and Terri Maurer invite the Middlers to a Labor Day fellowship at their house for dinner and fun. Kids are welcome too!

September 15th & 16th Youth Lectureship at Warners Chapel church of Christ.

Let's pray for our college students as they return to classes this Fall semester. We pray for success in their studies and even more for the spiritual strength to hold fast to their faith in God and devotion to living the Christian life in a secular, often tempting world.
