Read, Study, Meditate

Read - Reading is something we learn very early in school. Starting with the alphabet we progress as far as our natural ability and opportunity will take us. This enables us to read the Bible and thereby know God's will for our life.

Study - Studying is something else we learn at school which is a step beyond just reading. It implies a little more work. Study involves an effort to remember. When you study for a test in school, you not only read but make a conscience effort to remember. In like manner when we read the Bible it is important that we make an effort to remember what we have read. Study also involves an effort to understand. In order to understand we may have to stop and look up something. We may need to ask some questions such as: Who? What? When? Why?

Meditate - Meditation is something you probably did not learn at school. It can be a step beyond both reading and studying. It means to stop and think about it. Contemplate. Ask what does this mean for me? How should it affect my life? The Psalmist pronounced a blessing upon the man who meditates upon God's law (Psalm 1).

Let's be sure to READ, STUDY & MEDITATE on God's word.

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You will also notice that weekly we observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). There will also be an offering collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will hear the preaching of a Biblical message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit (proper attitude) and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.
