PREVENTING A POST- ANTIBIOTIC APOCALYPSE

Economist Jim O'Neill wrote a report about drug-resistant infections, "bacteria and other microbes that have become impervious to antibiotics" (The Atlantic, Ed Yong, 5/19/16). Ten million will die yearly by 2050. O'Neill gives ten suggestions to avert this: improve sanitation, a global surveillance network, a public-awareness campaign, better diagnostic tools, avoid unnecessary use of antibiotics in agriculture, promote effective alternatives, improve incentives for workers, adequately fund and reward those working on the problem, and build a global coalition.

I read this in light of the epidemic we are fighting together. It is the most dangerous threat any of us will face. Many of O'Neill's suggestions for fighting microbes are the marching orders God has given us to fight sin. Holiness, unity, improved evangelism, Bible study, avoid unnecessary fights, example, focusing more on eternity, better giving, and increased mission efforts all factor in saving more souls!

We don't know that O'Neill's prediction will come to pass. But, the Bible tells us in no uncertain terms that "it is appointed unto men once to die, and then the Judgment" (Heb. 9:27). The majority will be lost (cf. Mat. 7:13-14)! God is counting on us, Christians, to stem that tide as much as possible (Mark 16:15-16). Every individual you and I reach with the gospel is one less who will succumb to this eternally fatal threat!

Neal Pollard

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you and answer any questions you may have.
