Creation Stories

(The following is a copy of a letter-to-the-editor sent into the Winston-Salem Journal in response to an article that appeared in that paper on May 14. I thought some of you might enjoy seeing it.)

While I enjoy reading Earl Crow's columns on Saturdays, I do not always agree with his conclusions. I was particularly disappointed in his answer to the question, "Are there two creation stories in Genesis" ("Book of Genesis has two different creation stories", May, 14)? He answered, yes. I would give a definite no.

The Genesis writer does what is often done in treating any subject. First, give an overview and then focus on the details of one particular part. In Genesis 1 the overall view of creation including light, firmament, plant life, animal life, man, etc. Then in chapter 2 he focuses on man – how he was formed from the dust and how woman was formed from man's rib.

This is much like a map first showing a large section of a city then in an offset showing a more detailed map of a focused area.

Claude

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you and answer any questions you may have.
