UNMISTAKEN IDENTITY

By Neal Pollard

They both had a mole next to one eye and a scar on the left wrist. They lived 54 miles apart, one in Brookville and the other in Mooresville, Indiana. It was said they were practically identical twins. For notorious bank robber John Dillinger, that was no problem. But, for upstanding Ralph Alsman, it was a nightmare. Alsman was arrested 17 times and shot 11 times. Only when the real Dillinger was gunned down in 1934 did the unbelievable saga end for Alsman.

Who or what would people mistake us for? As we live out our lives before the world, waiting in lines or in traffic, when under pressure at work, as people mistreat or frustrate us, judging from our relationships, our ethics, and our morality, would people say that we strongly resemble Jesus? He is supposed to be living in us (Gal. 2:20).

Every day, we want to look more like Jesus. We should want people to see Him when they look at us.

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you and answer any questions you may have.
