The Ever-Present Poor

On one occasion Jesus made this statement: "Ye have the poor with you always." (Mark 14:7) It is so obviously true. Even in a land as prosperous as ours. Even with our fifty some years of war on poverty, still it has not been completely eradicated from our own land. But not only is there the everpresent poor in the world – we have a ever-present responsibility to help.

A while back as I stopped by a drug story to pick up some medicine, a young lady asked me for help. Usually in Winston -Salem those who stand at traffic lights to ask for help, have a badge indicating that the person has been cleared by the authorities to ask for alms. This lady, however, had no badge. So before helping her I ask the druggist if he knew her. He did not but he made a statement which has stuck with me. He said, "If that's her way of making a living, it would be okay to give her a couple of dollars." I know one or two of those who stand on the corners with a sign asking for help. And I know personally that some of them at least work when they can get work. And when there is no work, asking alms is their only means of livelihood.

How should we view the poor? Some of them at least are doing the best that they can. We should see them as a real opportunity to practice true religion. Remember the Proverb: "He that hath pity upon the poor lends unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will be paid him again." (Proverb 19:17)

Claude

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you.

UPCOMING EVENTS
