LIFE'S DECISIONS

The Bible has a lot to say about decisions. The great men of the Bible were great because of the choices they made. There was Joshua. He called on Israel to "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." Then added emphatically, "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15) There was also Moses. He chose "rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." (Hebrews 11:25)

There are many decisions we must make in life. We must choose a mate. This very important decision can determine the whole course of our lives. We must choose an occupation. Remember to make it an honorable one. We must choose our friends. Be very careful here. Remember: "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." (1 Corinthians 15:33)

We must never forget that decisions determine destiny. This is true not only of the big decisions but of the little ones also. Our eternal destiny will be determined by the total of all our decisions.

Claude

PRAYER LIST

James Brown, Matthew Brown's son, broke his right arm Thursday last week. He will be in a cast for six weeks.

Sarah Eure, Deborah Dull's mother, was in the hospital this past week. She was experiencing A-fib attacks.

James Gaddy, Edwin Boger's son-in-law, fell Thursday and broke some ribs and punctured a lung. He had successful surgery Friday morning at Forsyth Hospital.

Melinda Markman continues to recover from surgery.

Jerry Nuckols, Eddie's brother, had surgery last week to remove part of his liver. His liver did not respond as hoped for. He was placed on top of transplant list on Tuesday and is waiting on a compatible liver. He is in critical condition.

Betty Godbey fell down on concrete while doing yard work. She has a badly bruised and possibly fractured face. She is recovering at her son's home.

Sara Koontz fell on Thursday the 24th of February and broke her wrist. Her arm will be in a cast for five weeks.

Jerry Stanley continues to recover from his recent surgery.
