Evangelistic Obligation

As God's people we have certain obligations such as family, work, civic, etc. We also have evangelistic obligations. And like everything else the extent of our evangelistic responsibility is determined by ability, opportunity, etc. But whatever the limits of our abilities, opportunities, etc. we need to always be keenly aware of our obligation to try to reach others with the gospel.

The apostle Paul often expressed his feeling of evangelistic responsibility. Consider these statements:

"I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also." (Romans 1:14-15)

"Yea, woe is me, if I preach not the gospel!" (1 Corinthians 1:16)

"Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men." (2 Corinthians 5:11)

While none of us would anticipate spreading God's word to the extent that Paul did, nevertheless we should take seriously our obligation to do what we can.

WELCOME VISITORS

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you and answer any questions you may have.
