THE WORK IN VIRGINIA

SOUTH BOSTON, VIRGINIA

I was privileged to speak in South Boston, VA on April 22. I gave a report on our work and brought the Sunday morning sermon. Around the corner from the church building was one of Deborah's Stores that she over saw as an area supervisor. We stopped to get gas and visit for a few moments and we were thrilled to have Rickey Newbill, the manager of the store, attend worship service with us. Always good to see an old friend ...Donna Bunn.

STUART VIRGINIA

We are growing in Stuart, VA. There are several young people starting to attend services. Left to Right: Shyann, Kyle, Heather, Sean, Brianna. Dylan in front. Two young ladies, Shyann & Heather, have been regular to the worship for a while. They are excited to go to Carolina Bible Camp this summer. And we are getting them signed up to make that happen.

Travel.... Travel.... And more travel....

Driving Ms Deborah...Shoulder surgery had her unable to drive for several weeks...so it was back and forth to the Cardiac and Orthopedic rehab 3 days a week and as of today she is doing better than before the surgery. Both her heart and shoulder are improving with the goal of being able to go back overseas on mission trips. She has been venturing out to increase her stamina. Prayers still needed!!!

In our home

2018 Preacher's Wife Retreat
"The Seasons of Life for the Preacher's Wife"

The preachers wife retreat...I took Deborah to Mt. City to meet up with Heather Ferguson and Megan Stewart for the trip to Big Reedy Camp in KY. That was her first big trip without me since all the heart problems started last June and she did well.

Freed Hardeman

here we come...Our grandson Logan is considering this as his next stop in life so we visited the campus and SO much has changed since we were there 42 years ago. Deborah caught up with Jill Wilson, they went to high school together (her husband is the CFO of Freed). The excitement was not over ... on the trip home we stopped and saw Sandra Wheaton Welty one of Deborah's high school teachers from Christian Home & Bible School.

Deborah, Heather & Megan

Surprise!!!At the end of the trip Deborah caught up with an old friend William Jordan who now attends Ashville Hwy COC.

OTHER NEWS

I continue to preach two Sundays a month at Stuart, VA. Tim Horton preaches the other two. While Deborah was at the retreat, I preached in Statesville, NC at the Abilene congregation. It is always a pleasure to do this. Then I traveled to the Mountain View congregation in TN and worshiped with them. Then to Hampton, TN to pick up Deborah. And back Sunday night to Mocksville. What a day!

I have been filling in some on Wednesday nights at North Main (while they look for a pulpit preacher). I just finished a three lesson series on worship. Deborah and I were able to attend the Carolina lectures in April. The speakers were wonderful and it was very uplifting.

We are still having our Monday night class. We just finished James and will be starting a study on 1 Peter. Come if you are in the neighborhood. It starts at 7:00pm.

I have found a good place to pick up a bible study: the local library. If you sit there on a regular basis the word will get around.

A WONDERFUL CHRISTIAN BROTHER

Charles Stagall of Stuart, VA passed from this world on April 29, 2018. Charles had become a hard worker in the local congregation. It was wonderful to see the new life in him as he worked. Charles was a humble man and concerned for others' souls.

Cary Ladies Day

Deborah, D'Lea McDaniel and Joanna Darnall were able to attend. Joanna caught up with an old friend, Jan Burns. It was a lovely day.
