GODLY FATHERS

Faithful A man of faith will honor his marriage vows and honor his wife, and provide for his family (1 Peter 3:7; 1 Tim 5:8).

Action A man of action will work hard serving God. "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22). Some fathers want others to teach, offer prayers, serve on the Lord's table, etc. A godly father will want to do his job and lead his children by example.

Teach What children know about God is learned primarily in the home. "And you fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4). A godly father will be more concerned about his children's souls than their grades or athletic prowess.

Holy Fathers should be holy in both conduct and attitude. "I desire therefore that the men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting" (1 Timothy 2:8). If your children were asked 'Who is the godliest man you know?' do you live in such a way that you can be their answer?

Encourage Godly fathers will encourage their children to serve God, always strive to do better, and keep their eyes heavenward.

Revere God To revere God is to respect and honor His word. "Happy is the man who is always reverent, But he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity" (Proverbs 28:14). If a father truly has reverence toward God, he will obey His word and remain faithful to that commitment all his life. And his children, who do not now see the Heavenly Father, will be blessed to see many of His attributes in their worldly father.

A careful man I want to be,
A little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray,
For fear he'll go the self-same way.
I cannot once escape his eyes,
What'er he sees me do, he tries;
Like me he says he's going to be,
The little chap who follows me.
He thinks that I am good and fine,
Believes in every work of mine;
The bad in me he must not see,
The little chap who follows me.
I must remember as I go,
Through summer's sun and winter's snow;
I'm building for the years to be
For that little chap who follows me.
