

NORTH MAIN STREET CHURCH OF CHRIST

A Friendly Church with a Vital Message

October 6, 2019

For Example

In Philippians 3:17, Paul instructs the early Christians to “join in following my example and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.” Christians can and should look to the examples left by the apostles. While our ultimate example is Christ, and while the inspired apostles were not sinless or without faults, they were dedicated to the word of God and to living a faithful life (2 Thess. 3:7, 9).

Spiritually speaking, it may be easy to ask, “What example do you look to and follow today?” It may be a more difficult question to ask, “What example do you provide for others to follow today?” We not only need to follow sound and faithful examples of Christian living that we find in God’s word and around us in the church, but we also need to be that kind of example to others (1 Tim. 4:12; Titus 2:7). Do we strive to live in such a way that others can look to our example as a pattern worth following?

Visitors, we are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to contribute. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We hope you will visit for a while so that we can get to know you.

Welcome
