What's Your Motivation?

Conflict is an inevitable part of life. We will have disagreements, even with people who we love. In moments of conflict, it may be helpful to ask ourselves, "What's my motivation?" In other words, what are we trying or hoping to accomplish?

In Acts 18, a man named Apollos is teaching error, souls are in danger, and two members of the church go into action. In a moment of such great importance, consider how these faithful Christians handled things. Priscilla and Aquila heard Apollos speak and then "took him aside and explained to him the way of God more accurately" (v. 26). They did not stand up and blast him publically, they did not go on facebook and destroy his reputation, and they did not yell or scream. The Bible tells us they "took him aside" – they spoke to him privately – and they "explained the way of God."

Their motivation was not to win the argument, to talk louder or faster than Apollos, to shame him into repentance, or to impress a crowd of onlookers. Their motivation was to help Apollos teach God's word correctly.

Similarly, our motivation, when conflict arises, should not be based in pride or ego...but in sincere humility. What's your motivation?

Matt Langfield

Welcome

Visitors, we are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). An offering is collected (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to contribute. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We hope you will visit for a while so we can get to know you better.

SOMETIMES, YOU JUST HAVE TO
BOW YOUR HEAD, SAY A PRAYER, AND WEATHER THE STORM.

The Lord has heard
my supplication;
The Lord will receive my prayer.
Psalm 6:9
