Let's Do Some Math

It is remarkable to see the dedication of early Christians. They kept their faith through physical persecutions, even to the point of death, because of their dedication to God, Christ, and the church. A dedicated person is one who is “devoted to a task or purpose, having a single-minded loyalty.”

Are we dedicated today? We may quickly answer, “Yes!” but are we? Are we “devoted” and do we have a “single-minded loyalty” when it comes to our faith? If truly dedicated to God, Christ, and the church, then there is nothing that comes before these. Can we do that math?

Are we dedicated today? Again, we may quickly answer, “Yes!” but are we? Upon construction of a new church or public building, a dedication will often take place during which that entire building is ceremonially committed to its intended purpose. If we have dedicated ourselves to our faith, every part of us is committed to that purpose. As individuals we will give everything we have: our lives, our resources, our minds, and our hearts. Can we do that math? Do we give everything (100%) for our faith?

If we are 60%, 75%, or even 90% committed to this cause, are we truly dedicated at all?

Welcome Visitors

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You will also notice that weekly we observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11:27-29). There will also be an offering collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will hear the preaching of a Biblical message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit (proper attitude) and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.
