Who Will We See In Heaven?

In our Wednesday night study, we recently discussed whether or not we will have the ability to recognize others in heaven. Will we?

We are more than just a physical body. We know that God is not physical, yet we were made “in the likeness of God” (Gen. 1:26). We understand that we have a spirit within us (different than animals), and there is no biblical evidence that this spirit is altered or destroyed by death.

Our spirit survives our physical death and enables us to recognize others in eternity. Consider the following examples:

Jesus’ words – Jesus spoke of those in heaven as recognizable, saying, “many will ... recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven” (Matt. 8:11).

The apostles' actions – In Matt. 17:4, at the transfiguration, Peter recognized Moses and Elijah, who had died centuries before.

The rich man – In Luke 16, the rich man recognized Lazarus (v. 23). He also recalled his still-living brothers.

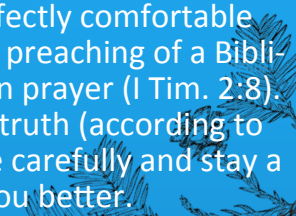

Many other examples could fill pages of this study, but it does seem apparent that we will not lose our ability to recognize others, even in heaven.

Welcome

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You will also notice that weekly we observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). There will also be an offering collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will hear the preaching of a Biblical message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit (proper attitude) and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while after worship so that we can get to know you better.
