GROWTH: GOD GIVES THE INCREASE

“Heaven on Earth”

You may have heard or even used the phrase “heaven on earth” when attempting to describe something wonderful. A perfect cinnamon roll (or hamburger), a beautiful day at our favorite vacation spot, or maybe even an extremely comfortable piece of furniture, may cause us to employ this phrase in an attempt to describe our experience.

Heaven will indeed be a wonderful place, yet far more wonderful than anything on this earth. In 1 Corinthians 15, Paul writes to the early church about the resurrection of those who have “fallen asleep...in the Lord.” While he describes the transformation from our physical bodies to our spiritual bodies, he provides an interesting detail concerning heaven’s location. In verse 47, while comparing Adam, the first man from whom we have physical life and Christ, from whom we have spiritual life, he writes, “The first man is from the earth, earthy; the second man is from heaven.”

Adam and Christ came from two different places. Paul tells us that Adam is “from the earth,” and we remember that God formed him of the “dust from the ground” (Genesis 2:7). Christ, on the other hand, “is from heaven.” This passage tells us that heaven is not on the earth, it is a place that exists now, and it is a spiritual place where we will go to be with Christ for eternity.

As enjoyable as cinnamon rolls, hamburgers, and vacations might be, heaven is far better.

WELCOME VISITORS

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better.
