GROWTH: GOD GIVES THE INCREASE

Connecting the Dots

In our Wednesday night class, we have been “Connecting the Dots” as we have surveyed the Old Testament. One of the most remarkable connections we can make is the tie between the Old Testament examples and our lives as Christians today. Consider the following:

We are God's people – 1 Peter 2:9 tells us that we are “a people for God's own possession.” We also know that the Israelites were God's people.

We struggle with sin – Romans 3:23 tells us that “all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.” We also know that the Israelites struggled with sin, even after entering the promised land. Their sin became so great that the nation of God's people divides.

Our sin separates us from God – Ephesians 2:12 tells us that we were once “separate from Christ.” We also know that Israel's sin continued until they were separated or removed from the promised land and therefore removed from the promises and blessings from God.

God desires for us to be near Him once again – Ephesians 2:13 tells us that we “have been brought near by the blood of Christ.” We also see the same desire of God demonstrated in the lives of the Israelites as God restored them to the promised land.

The Old and New Testaments both tell of God's love, God's saving grace, and how He works in the lives of men and women, even today.

Welcome

Visitors, we are so glad you are here! We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You will also notice that weekly we observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). There will also be an offering collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will hear the preaching of a Biblical message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit (proper attitude) and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay afterwards so that we can get to know you.

JCM BIBLE CLASS

September 14 Monday

Class will begin at 7:00pm
in the fellowship room.

The topic will be

"The Ends, Outs, Ups, and Downs of Personal Evangelism".

Please let Gary know if you plan to attend so the room can be arranged to accommodate the social distancing requirements.
