For the last six years or so, since Julie and I have been blessed with children, we have both taken a lot (many thousands) of pictures. From time to time, we will look down at the camera and realize that we have captured a picture that appears to be "perfect." The moment, setting, lighting, colors, and smiles all work together as if by our design.

The Bible is filled with moments, events, people, and concepts that illustrate lessons for us today. One of the "perfect pictures" captured for us by God is baptism.

Baptism is a perfect picture of obedience. When we choose to obey God's word and go down into the waters of baptism, we are reminded of Christ's unending obedience to the Father. Jesus was obedient even to the point of physical death on the cross.

Baptism is a perfect picture of death. When we are baptized, we are immersed or buried in water, and our old life comes to an end. After His ultimate act of obedience, Christ's ministry was complete; His body was buried and sealed in the tomb.

Baptism is a perfect picture of the resurrection. Moments after we are buried in water, our physical body is brought back to the surface, and we are reminded that death is not the end of our story. Christ was raised from His grave and ultimately ascended into heaven, not just leaving the tomb behind, but leaving this world for His eternal home.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

WELCOME VISITORS

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you.

October 26 Monday at 7pm
