PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER

James wrote, "pray for one another" (James 5:16), and while those words were first written to Christians nearly 2,000 years ago, they hold true for us today. We might typically pray for our health, spiritual strength, wisdom, and continued blessings from God. We likely pray for our country, our leaders, physical safety, and peace. We probably also thank God in prayer for all that He has done for us, for our physical and spiritual blessings, and specifically for the hope of eternity in heaven. But James wrote, "pray for one another."

How often do we include our brothers and sisters in Christ in our private prayers? How often do we plead with God for their health, spiritual strength, wisdom, and continued blessings? How often do we remember fellow Christians by name as we humbly and reverently bow our heads and fold our hands in prayer?

As we strive to build and strengthen our connection to God, to God's word, and specifically to the house of God, we must "pray for one another." We need to remember each other's strengths, weaknesses, victories, and trials as we spend time with God in prayer.

Imagine how much stronger and more resilient, the Lord's church would be, how much brighter His light would shine, if every Christian devoted time each day to praying for one another.

WELCOME

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. A Biblical message (Acts 20:7) will be preached and men will lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We strive to worship God in spirit and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). We encourage you to stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Due to the ongoing Covid19 pandemic, there are no upcoming events. In-person worship at the building has resumed. Online worship will continue to be broadcast through the North Main Members Only Facebook group for those who do not feel safe attending in person.
