Home of the Soul

Near the end of every vacation or family trip, I will say, "I'm ready to be home." Our home is the place where many of us find the most comfort, peace, and happiness. Spiritually speaking, "home" usually describes and points our minds to heaven, a place that we look forward to, that motivates us to live a life faithful to God, and where we will experience indescribable comfort.

Heaven is the goal of every Christian and the prize at the end of a faithful life. In Philippians 3:13-14, Paul writes of "reaching for what lies ahead" and pressing "on toward the goal for the prize." Paul looked forward to achieving his goal and receiving that prize.

Heaven is an eternal rest from the difficulties and trials of this world. We are never promised a trouble-free life on earth, but we are promised eternal relief from those troubles in heaven. Christians are motivated to remain faithful, regardless of how difficult life becomes, by the promise of heaven.

Heaven is our eternal home and a place of great comfort. In Revelation 21:1-4, heaven is described as a place where God "will wipe away every tear" from our eyes and where "there will no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain."

Heaven is our prize, rest, and eternal home; it is the "Home of the Soul."

and THANK
God. Look forward and TRUST God.

Attention Secret Sisters: We are all having a good time with the gifts and learning about our sisters at church. IT'S BEEN FUN! However, some are not able to continue and some want to join the fun! You will keep your same secret sister through June. In the bulletin this week you will find a new form. You have two weeks to fill it out. Please return it to the gold box in the fellowship room. You will receive your new secret sister in plenty of time to start July 1. Again it's all hush-hush don't tell who you had or who you have.

Those that walk with God always reach their destination.

"He was asking His disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but still others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.'" – Matthew 16:13-16

God never said the journey would be easy. But He did say the destination would be well worth it.
