Our Hope and Our Future

Having a plan for the future can give us great comfort. While we should trust that God will take care of our needs and is always in control (James 4:15), He still instructs us to wisely plan for what might lie ahead (Proverbs 6:6-8).

We prepare for our immediate future daily by picking out our clothes to wear and choosing what to eat for breakfast. We plan for our distant future as we save for major purchases and even for our retirement. But, we also need to be sure and plan for our eternal future that will begin when this physical life is over and never come to an end.

One of the wonderful things about our hope as Christians is that we know that our eternal future is secure. Our hope is the confident expectation that all of God's promises are always true. Paul tells us that Christ Jesus "is our hope" in 1 Timothy 1:1, which means Christ is the proof that God is always faithful.

If we have Christ in our lives, having obeyed the gospel, and therefore fully trust in God's promises, He has already prepared our eternal future. In 2 Timothy 4:8, Paul wrote, "in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness...." Paul did not doubt his salvation or doubt his eternal reward; Paul knew and trusted that his eternity was secure.

Have we prepared for our eternal future? Do we trust that our eternal future is secure? Do we have the hope within us that only comes through obedience to the gospel?

WELCOME VISITORS

We are so glad you are here! We worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). A Biblical message is preached (Acts 20:7) and men lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We hope you are enriched by the service. We hope you will stay a while afterwards so we can get to know you.

Upcoming Events

TODAY North Main 5th Sunday Fellowship Meal & Singing at 1:30
September 2 Friday End-of-Summer Fellowship at the Davie County Community Park Splash Pad from 5:30 -7:30pm
September 10 Saturday Ladies Day at Charlotte Avenue church of Christ
September 10 Saturday 10th Annual Carolina Bible Camp Blue Grass Festival

PSALM 118:5-6

I called on the Lord in distress;
The Lord answered me and set me in a broad place. The Lord is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me?

Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed;
save me, and I shall be saved. Jeremiah 17:14
