Jesus is Coming

The Bible has three primary themes: Jesus is coming, Jesus is here, and Jesus is coming back. From the book of Genesis through Malachi, we find the first of these three.

From the moment Adam and Eve sinned in the garden, God’s plan of redemption and spiritual salvation went into effect. The people who lived under the Old Testament law (before Jesus came) could not fully understand God’s plan because He did not fully reveal it to them. Still, every event, every prophecy, and every scripture of the Old Testament was a part of Jesus’ pending arrival.

Noah’s salvation in the ark pointed toward Jesus (2 Peter 2:5). Israel’s 400 years of Egyptian slavery would lead us to Jesus (Genesis 15:13). The Babylonian army destroying the temple and then the Israelites rebuilding it was all part of God’s plan to one day send Jesus (Ezekiel 36:24ff).

For centuries, God’s people hoped for a savior from slavery and oppression, yet they never imagined the salvation that Jesus would make possible (Matthew 1:21). For generations, they waited for a king who would sit on the throne of King David and restore their holy nation, but they never dreamed of a king who was the Son of God and God Himself (John 1:1, 49).

From the beginning, God had a plan motivated by His love and our need for a savior (John 3:16, Acts 2:23, 1 Peter 1:20). For thousands of years, God worked in the lives of men through their rebellion and their faithfulness to bring about a way for our eternal salvation.

WELCOME VISITORS

We are so glad you are here! We worship according to the New Testament pattern. We sing without musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). A Biblical message is preached (Acts 20:7) and men lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We hope you are enriched by the service. We hope you will stay a while afterwards so we can get to know you.

The best remedy for those who are afraid, lonely or unhappy is to go outside, somewhere where they can be quiet, alone with the heavens, nature and God. Because only then does one feel that all is as it should be. -Anne Frank

Ask the animals, and they will teach you; and the birds of the air, and they will tell you; or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; and the fish of the sea will explain to you.

Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this, in whose hand is the life of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind? Job 12:7-10
