The Hope of God's People

Because God has always made promises, His people have always had “hope.” Adam was promised life in the garden if he avoided eating from “the tree of the knowledge of good and evil” (Genesis 1:17). Noah was promised survival from the flood and a covenant with God if he would build and enter the ark (Genesis 6:17). Abraham was promised God's protection along with a nation of descendants and Moses was promised a land “flowing with milk and honey” (Genesis 12:3, Exodus 3:8). But while hope has always been, the book of Hebrews tells us that Christians today have a “better hope” (Hebrews 7:19).

Our hope is better than anything Adam, Noah, Abraham, or Moses could have imagined because it is based on even “better promises” (Hebrews 8:6). God has promised us something better than life in the garden of Eden, survival through the global flood, physical protection from enemies, innumerable descendants, or even a land of abundance filled with blessings. Instead, God has promised us that the blood of Jesus cleanses our sins and assures us of our eternal home in heaven with Him. As a result, today, we have a far better hope.

WELCOME VISITORS

You are our honored guests!

We are glad you have joined us. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). A Biblical message is preached (Acts 20:7) and men lead the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We hope you are enriched by the service. Please stay a while after service so we can meet you.

From Deborah Dull:
Sisters I want to invite all of you to a new Bible study that starts next Tuesday morning at 10:30 at the Jericho church of Christ. We will be studying The ABC's of a Godly Heart by Cassandra Martin. D'Lea McDaniel teaches this class and I can guarantee you will be richly rewarded with your attendance. The Jericho Church has bought the books for us.

From Deborah Dull:
The list is up for food items needed for the next CEC meal. The food items need to be brought by Sunday the 16th.
