A Friendly Church with a Vital Message

How Will We Respond?

When Adam and Eve first sinned in the garden, God quickly responded. He punished them both, punished the serpent, forced them to leave Eden, and eventually sent His Son to die on the cross. Jesus' perfect death would make it possible for us to have every sin washed away and spend eternity in heaven with Him.

In the book of Acts, Peter preached the first gospel sermon to a crowd of people guilty of nailing Jesus to the cross, and those people responded. They learned that God had sent His Son, that they had rejected Jesus, and that they were now guilty of that sin. The Bible tells us that they were "pierced to the heart" and then asked, "[W]hat shall we do?" (Acts 2:37). They had been made aware of their sin problem, felt guilt deep in their hearts, and now wanted to know the solution.

When the people asked that question, Peter also responded. In the next verse, he answered, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins..." (Acts 2:38). Peter gave them the solution, telling those sorrow-filled people what they needed to do to have their sins forgiven.

God responded with love, the people responded with sorrow, and Peter provided the solution, but how will we respond today? Are we willing to respond to the love of God by obeying His commands and having our sins forgiven?

WELCOME FRIENDS & FAMILY!

You are our honored guests! We are so very glad you have joined us on this special 'Friends and Family' day. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without the addition of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You will also notice that weekly we observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42), yet we do not have "closed communion". Everyone must examine himself (I Cor. 11: 27-29). There will also be an offering collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to worship God in spirit (proper attitude) and in truth (according to the word of God - John 4:24). Feel free to ask about any questions you may have. Thank you for worshipping us and making this day special. We hope you will stay for the meal afterwards so that we can get to know you better!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
