Reconciled in Christ

One of the great, if not the greatest blessings that mankind can rejoice in, is the ability to be reconciled to God in Christ. In Colossians 1:19-23, Paul makes this very point and even builds on this by showing the Colossians that the fullness of God dwells in Christ. It was through Christ that God opened the only path in which true peace and reconciliation can happen. In short, God opened a path by which sinful people can be restored.

To fully understand and appreciate just how grand this blessing was, Paul reminds the Colossians, and us as well, that we were at one time alienated and enemies of God because of our sin. However, God still allowed a way for us to become holy, blameless, and above reproach in His sight. This plan was paved through the obedience of the Gospel, which includes baptism for the remission of our sins. In baptism we are united with Christ's death and resurrection, the very foundation of our hope.

Paul adds a serious warning about the possibility of falling in verse 23 and gives the call to steadfastness. Since we have enjoyed such a great blessing, we are to remain steadfast in Him and not stray to the world. Let us remain anchored in Christ, grateful for His sacrifice and determined to continue faithfully until the end.

Welcome Visitors

We are glad you have joined us! Please fill out a visitor card or scan the QR code on the back of the pew in front of you. If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect.

We worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, you will notice that we sing without musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16).

We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). A Biblical message is preached (Acts 20:7) and men lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We hope you are enriched by the service. Please stay a while after the service so that we can meet you.
