Come, Lord Jesus

Just three words from the end of our Bibles, John writes, "Come, Lord Jesus" (Revelation 22:20). This expression of longing is one that every Christian should have. John eagerly anticipated the return of Christ, yet many today struggle to maintain this same perspective. The distractions of this world and all of the pleasures it has to offer, can easily take our attention away from the promise of His return. For some who have been distracted, or even those who are living faithfully, we may need a reminder about that day.

When the Lord returns, there will be no more opportunities to prepare. There will be no more working toward repentance, no more last-minute efforts to make things right, and no more promises that tomorrow will be the day we begin living faithfully for God. On that day we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ and give an account (Romans 14:10). Nothing is hidden from the eyes of the Lord. Every word, action, and motive is known by Him. How will you fair?

The return of Christ does not have to be fearful; the thought of His return should be joyful and exciting. For those who are in Christ, it is a day of hope and rejoicing. Through His sacrifice we have redemption and forgiveness of sins (Ephesians 1:7). On that day there will be no more sorrow, pain, or tears. Instead, we will enjoy eternity with Him (Revelation 21:1-4).

Are you ready for that day? Longing for His return? We do not have to be fearful of the end, but excited to meet our Lord, and to hear those wonderful words; "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Welcome Visitors

We are so glad that you have joined us! If this is your first time with us, we would like to let you know what to expect. You will notice that we sing without musical instruments (Eph. 3:19; Col. 3:16). We observe the Lord's Supper (Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38, 42). An offering is collected from our members (I Cor. 16:1-2). A Biblical message is preached (Acts 20:7) and men lead the congregation in prayer (I Tim. 2:8). We hope you are enriched by the service.
